

I do not want any change to the Wisconsin Do-Not-Call list. Before signing up for the no-call list, we were constantly being interrupted - especially during our evening meal. We would have 2-5 phone messages left from these callers as well. The peace and quiet the no-call list has brought to our household has been priceless. Please don't take it away.